PGCET-2020 – Second and Final Round Instructions

No choices will be given to candidates after the announcement of seat allotment in second and final round. Candidates may please note that the seat gets allotted based on options entered by candidates and merit, candidates should pay the prescribed fees (if not paid) and compulsorily report to the colleges on or before the last date mentioned in the admission order. If any candidate fails to report to the college after allotment of seats in the Second and final Round, legal action will be initiated against such candidate in accordance with law.

1. Eligible candidates who have been assigned ranks in PGCET-2020 but did not attend the documents verification earlier, if interested to select the available seats can attend the documents verification on 07-01-2021 from 11.00 am to 1.00 pm at KEA, Bangalore with all the necessary original documents. (only to those who are not holding verification slip issued by KEA)
2. For second and final round seat allotment, candidates can enter fresh options if they are interested. The priority of options entered by the candidates will remains same even for this round also. All the above higher order options will be considered for allotment of seats.
3. Candidate can modify / alter / delete the higher order options.
4. Candidates should not claim any ignorance on allotment of seats and they should not reject the allotted seats since the seat is allotted to candidates based on the options entered by them and order of merit. For any reason candidates will not be allowed to continue in their earlier allotted colleges. As already informed the earlier allotted seat will not be in their favour and therefore such candidates should invariably report to the allotted colleges.

NOTE: Consequential vacancies that arise after their turn cannot be claimed.
