NOTE

Sub: Regarding candidates who have failed to make payments for UGCET 2024 applications and candidates who have not selected CET in combined application.

UGCET 2024 exams are scheduled on 18th & 19th of this month. Hall tickets are also released. At this stage some of the candidates have approached KEA requesting an opportunity as they have missed to make payments or to select CET exam in combined application and that this has come to their notice while downloading hall tickets. Since the exams are only 5-6 days ahead, taking a humane view candidates are allowed, subject to following conditions :

1. Candidates who have not selected CET in the application, should personally be present in KEA from 10.04.2024 to 12.04.2024 till 5.00 pm and submit application.
2. Candidates who have failed to pay fees should personally be present in KEA from 10.04.2024 to 12.04.2024 till 5.00 pm and submit DD for Rs. 600/- drawn in favour of Executive Director, Karnataka Examinations Authority, Bangalore. They should also bring a copy of their applications.
3. Since all preparations for exams have been completed, candidates applying at this stage shall be allotted to a vacant seat in exam centre in any part of Karnataka. Candidates who are agreeable to this condition will only be considered.
4. Since the online application process for CET exams is already complete, KEA shall not be responsible for changes in database of additional candidates.
